

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Visual Arts Show

Entry Deadline - Friday, December 8, 2017 at 5:00 PM

OPEN TO All Montgomery County Students in Elementary,
Middle and High School

Fulfilling the Dream

A Celebration of Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow

In Observance of Montgomery County, Maryland's Celebration of the Life and Legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Artwork Submitted Should Reflect:

- An understanding and appreciation of the ideals of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. (his life, achievements, and aspirations)
- Clarity and originality of the student's artistic expression; and
- Adherence to the theme.

THEME FOR 2018

“Fulfilling the Dream - A Celebration of Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow”
Students are asked to interpret what their dreams are for the future.

VISUAL ARTS SHOW (Students should work with their teachers on submission criteria)

- Prints, posters, collages, murals, photographs, and all other two-dimensional visual art forms are sought, and group projects are welcome.
  - o Artwork must be matted or mounted.
  - o Artwork must be labeled with the student's name, grade level, school name, and teacher's names on the back of the work.
  - o Artwork must be no larger than 70" (height) x 38" (width).
  - o Artwork must be original student work. Students will act ethically, without plagiarizing, when using existing imagery to research and/or create original art. Students will cite original sources and demonstrate the appropriate use of copyrighted and public domain imagery. Students will make substantial transformations beyond simple duplication to source imagery and ideas. This transformation must surpass copying the image in another medium. The resulting artwork must alter the formal qualities of design, express a new idea, and/or alter the meaning of the source.
- All entries must be received by Mrs. Linda S. Adams, Supervisor, Pre-K-12 Fine Arts, MCPS, CESC, Room 256, 850 Hungerford Drive, Rockville, Maryland 20850 NO LATER THAN DECEMBER 8, 2017. Certificates will be awarded to student participants who meet all the submission criteria.
- Artwork that meets all the submission criteria will be exhibited on Monday, January 15, 2018, in connection with the Montgomery County Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Commemorative Celebration, which will begin at 3:30 p.m. at the Strathmore Music Center, 5301 Tuckerman Lane, North Bethesda, Maryland 20852.
- All visual arts entries that meet the submission criteria will be displayed at the Strathmore Music Hall before and after the program. Some artwork will be included in a PowerPoint presentation during the event.
- All art teachers and students throughout the county are encouraged to attend the program which is FREE and OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.
- Artwork will again be on display at the Montgomery County Executive Building, 101 Monroe Street, Rockville, Maryland 20850 from January 16, 2018, through the end of February in celebration of Black History Month. All MCPS artwork will be returned to schools by the second week of March. Non-MCPS schools must be picked up their artwork by March 9, 2018, from the same MCPS drop off location listed above.

Please fill out the consent form and turn in with the artwork. This year one piece will be chosen to be given to the County Executive at Strathmore in recognition of his service to the county. Parents will be contacted in advance for permission for the student work or digital image to be given to the County Executive for his service.